HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

After all these years I've finally acquired a school pennant.

With a flock of Halloween Carnivals being held at elementary schools in the Peninsula area Monday night, it was obvious that I couldn't attend all of them. So, after the Trick or Treat kids had been around—including a cute "skunk" and a couple of big boys 14 or 15 years old—I made my wife the following proposition:

"Let's go over to Silvergate School (two or three blocks away) and then take in the Carnival at Ocean Beach."

She was willing . . . And Silvergate was really jumping. Parents were out in force with their kids—hundreds of little witches, ghosts, goblins, skeletons, clowns and whatnot, all having a heck of a good time.

Excitement—wow! I never saw so many kids besieging booths so enthusiastically. They threw balls, flung darts, tossed rings; hauled in prize "fish" from the pond; gobbled candy and hot dogs like mad; circulated freely, and chattered and whooped and hollered.

* * *

It reminded me of my late-lamented youth. Flexing my so-called muscles I tried to move in on the booth where they were throwing balls at wooden milk bottles. No luck, however. Too many kids.

So I settled for a little blue and gray Silvergate School pennant, and we went our way rejoicing to the O. B. Community Center.

There, the costume parade had disbanded and many of the little witches, etc., had gone home. But the Carnival area was still crowded; teen-agers were waiting for the dance to start; and plenty of other kids were circulating.

I noted that Cub Packs 28 and 228 had booths, as did the Peninsula Woman's Club, PTA, Moose and others.

* * *

Well, both of my football teams—Point Loma High and San Diego State—won their games last week by 7 to 6 scores.

Incidentally, all 10 sports writers on the Union had picked San Francisco State to defeat S. D. State, one of them by 40-7.

All 10 also picked USC to defeat Minnesota, and Washington to beat Oregon State. (USC lost in the snow, as you know, and Washington got whupped.)

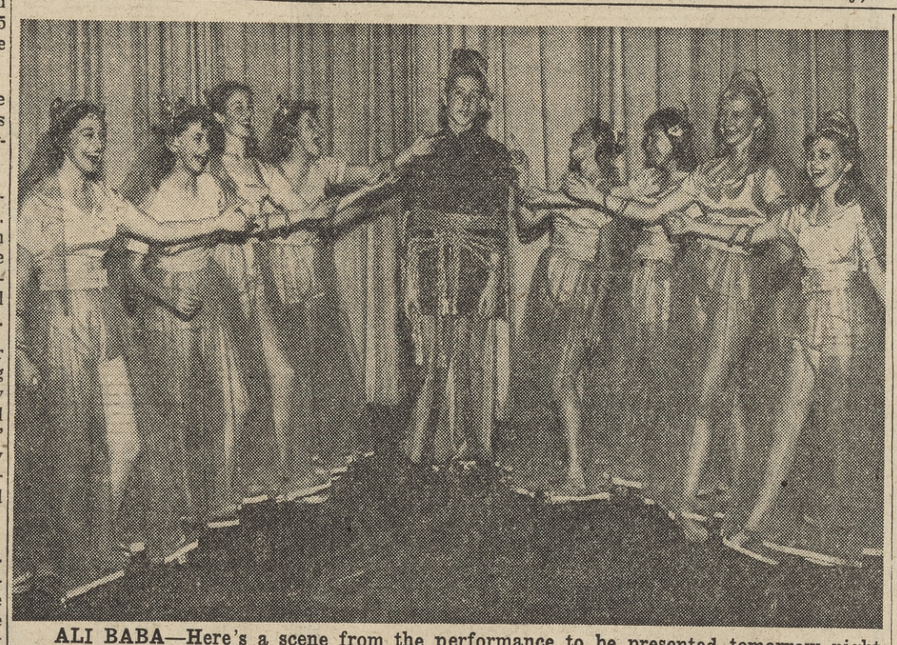

It's only fair to point out that they were unanimously correct in selecting Stanford over San Jose State, UCLA over Cal—that was a cinch—and COP over Washington State.

But I find it a little depressing that all 10 made their picks strictly on the basis of past performances. It does seem that one frisky maverick might have kicked over the traces and high-tailed it out of the stable for a romp in rocky pastures.

Such conformity! Tsk, tsk.

MISS CALIFORNIA — Donna Schurr will appear in person at Veda Moss Style Shop in Ocean Beach Friday, Nov. 11, 2 to 8 p.m.

Also in the crew from Point Loma are Hazel Evans, Linda Bartholomew and Virginia Perkins.

Firemen's Ball Set For Nov. 22

San Diego firemen will revive their annual Ball this year, according to Lieut. D. I. Neville, of 3619 Tennyson St., dance chairman.

Lawrence Welk and his 23-piece "Champagne orchestra" will provide music for the event, to be held at Mission Beach Ballroom Nov. 22 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

"This ball is the only means of raising money for the Firemen's Relief Fund, which provides aid to disabled or injured firefighters and their famlies," it was said.

Tickets may be obtained at city fire stations, includingg those at 4711 Voltaire St., and 1055 Catalina Blvd.

In response to a get-well letter recently to President Eisenhower, Lynda Jean Becker, 12, received the following message from The White House:

"The president is deeply grateful for your kind birthday message and appreciates your good wishes. Noting that you celebrated your birthday the same date, he sends his greetings and best wishes to you."

Lynda, a seventh grader at Sacred Heart School, lives at 4785 Saratoga Ave. Her birthday was Oct. 14.

Driftwood Show Set Sat. & Sun.

Popularity of the Driftwood Exhibit for two years has brought about a return engagement to be held for the third time Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 5 and 6, from 1 to 5 p.m. at Lomaland Hall on the campus of California Western University on Point Loma.

Sponsored by the university as part of its art program, the exhibit will include driftwood arrangements and combinations of driftwood and other media. Pieces from all over the country will be shown, including woods from the Navajo Reservation in New Mexico and Kootenay Lake in Canada.

Awards will be made on the basis of popular poll for the best in the show and the best in each classification. The exhibit is open to the public without charge.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN FOR DALE NEUBERT

Grinning jack-o-lanterns and Hallowe'en regalia greeted Dale Neubert recently when Mrs. Neubert gave a surprise birthday party for him at their home at 2709 Nipoma St.

Games were played and Mrs. Kay Ward danced the hula in costume.

Guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Aron Aberhamsen, Harold Meyers, Gene Anderson, Charles Rhea, Don Stansifer, Dale Truckenmiller, Alan Fischer, Howard Alloway, H. Kefel, Larry Lipe and Richard Steveson.

Also, Lt. and Mrs. Cecil King, Col. and Mrs. Roland Shaw, and Mmes. Angie Shilling and Laura James.

Point Loma High, St. Augustine Collide Friday

Occupying the rarefied heights of second place in the City Prep League, Point Loma High School's football team will engage non-league St. Augustine in a game at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at the local field.

Phil Meyer is expected to start at halfback in place of Roy Kennedy, who probably will see limited action due to an injury.

Excitement is a mild word to describe the tense situation at the local field last Friday when, with the Lomans 6 points behind Lincoln, the clock was running out as they neared the goal line in their final drive.

Bill Harvey had thrown passes to Fred Jones and Steve Aldridge for good yardage in a steady march toward pay dirt. Then, with the ball on the Lincoln 16-yard line, a defensive holding penalty was called against the visitors, moving it to the one.

As the final gun went off, Harvey plunged over to score six points for Point Loma and the crowd went slightly delirious.

Jim Clifton kicked the all-important extra point, giving the locals a 7-6 victory.

Outstanding on defense were Jim Allin, linebacker, and Dick Tartre, halfback.

Boy Scout News

Lloyd Williams, North Shore District training chairman, announced yesterday that two more sessions will be held in the Cub Scouts leaders basic training course—the nights of Nov. 7 and 14 at O. B. Kiwanis Youth Center.

H. C. Coates, district commissioner, announced that leaders round-table meetings will be held at Pacific Beach Junior High Thursday, Nov. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Don Robinson, district camping and activities chairman, was happy to see the fine display of Scout crafts and skills at Balboa Camp Oct. 22, when the third annual Scout Field Day was held. Some 137 Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders, representing 11 troops, gathered to have fun and win award ribbons for their patrols.

A special vote of thanks goes to Knute Takle and the Order of the Arrow members who helped.

Construction To Start On $160,000 Bldg.

Construction of a $160,000 building at Santa Monica Ave. and Cable St. by Professional Properties, Inc., will be started this week, it was announced.

The corporation includes Dr. Winton B. Oster, Dr. Roy Barrett and Dr. James MacDonald, of the Ocean Beach Medical Group; Dr. Seymour Kuntz, O.D., and James Hunt and Leo Volz.

Site of the building is the former community parking lot, 125x140 ft. at the southeast corner of Santa Monica and Cable. It will be a one-story stone and block, stucco and glass structure, with about 8,000 square feet of floor space. There will be a landscaped inner court, and parking for some 25 cars.

Occupants will include Drs. Oster, Barrett and MacDonald; Dr. Kuntz, optometrist, and Hunt and Volz, who will operate a prescription pharmacy. Two dental suites have not yet been leased.

Construction is expected to require about six months. Al Schrieber is the contractor, and Richard George Wheeler, A.I.A., and Associates, the architects.

Trask Purchases Loma Food Store

Purchase by Grover Trask of the Loma Food Store, 2938 Lytton St., Loma Portal, from Connie and Jack Dunn, was announced this week.

"Trask has a long record of successful operations in San Diego," said Dunn, "and his background assures customers of the store of an efficient, exciting market that will set the pace in the area."

Harold Wade, store manager, said that plans include "staying open seven days a week, for customer convenience; a bulletin board for neighborhood use, a suggestion box, and a wall directory that can be seen from any point, to aid shoppers in locating items."

Dunn plans to devote full time to his food brokerage firm, the J. H. Dunn Co. He said he's "right back where he started, in the wholesale end of the food business."

Ad Club & BBB Fight Ad Fraud

Maximum compliance with the San Diego Truth in Advertising Code is the objective of a movement in which the Advertising & Sales Club has joined forces with the Better Business Bureau.

Fraudulent and deceptive advertising, against which the Bureau long has campaigned, will be the target of the two organizations, working through a recently created Advertising Board of Review. The board, composed of business and professional people, is headed by Kenneth A. Nairne, bank vice president.

Nairne said that while the Bureau has achieved a noteworthy record in fighting unethical advertising practices, it was felt that its position would be strengthened through the support of the advertising profession. He added that measurable success in eliminating "fringe" or "marginal" operations has been attained by review boards in other cities.

United Success Drive Report

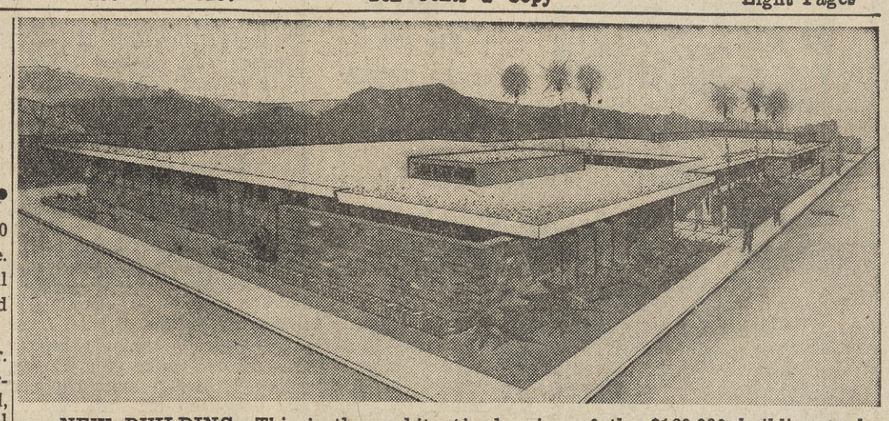

United Success Drive leaders yesterday urged people of the Peninsula planning to give to the campaign at home to mail in their contributions.

Mrs. Harley Greaves, Peninsula chairman, said yesterday this area is running fifth in the residential drive. She added that part of the reason for the lag here might lie in the fact that campaigners had not always found people at home.

"Some of our campaigners," she said, "have made three and four trips to a house to try to find the people in. I think they've done their duty. It's up to the public now to share the responsibility and help see the campaign over the top by mailing donations to the Community Chest, P. O. Box 2671, San Diego 12."

The United Success Drive is also prepared to send campaigners to any given home to pick up a contribution if ararngements can be made for a specific time for pick-up.

Mrs. Greaves said the arrangements could be made by calling the Community Chest, AC-3-7191.

NEW BUILDING—This is the architect's drawing of the $160,000 building to be erected at Santa Monica Ave. and Cable St. It will be used for medical and dental offices and a pharmacy. Richard George Wheeler, A.I.A., is the architect.

CHURCH—This is an artist's sketch of the new Seventh-Day Adventist Church at W. Point Loma Blvd. and Bacon St. Richard E. Delafield is pastor of the church, which has started a building campaign for $75,000. "This new church," said Pastor Delafield, "will truly be a house of prayer for all people and will be a definite spiritual asset to the community." Services for the congregation will continue at Pt. Loma Methodist Church until the new Seventh-Day Adventist Church is completed.

OCEAN BEACH CHURCH LAUNCHES BUILDING DRIVE

Saturday morning, October 29, the Ocean Beach Seventh-day Adventist church launched its building campaign with a goal of $75,000 to be reached by December 31.

Members already have raised in cash and pledges approximately $40,000 of this amount. Phase I of the campaign is to raise the needed moned by the end of this year, and Phase II is to start construction soon after the first of the year at the site—Bacon St. at West Point Loma Blvd.

Ten "bands" have been organized for the campaign. The Gold Division, headed by Jack Booker, includes the following band leaders: Douglas Armstrong, Jack Booker, J. D. Browder, Mrs. E. L. Cardoza and Cliff Knight. The Silver Division, headed by Dr. W. B. Oster, includes these band leaders: Dr. Glen McDonald, F. F. Oster, Dr. W. B. Oster, Walter Peden and Dr. Alfred Sand.

For two years the Adventists have been holding their weekly Saturday morning meetings in Pt. Loma Methodist Church. Services will continue there until the new church is ready.

Dr. Rust To Speak At Service Sunday In University Chapel

Dr. William C. Rust, president of California Western University, will speak on "Many Flags Flying," Nov. 6, for the regular 9:30 a.m. Sunday service in Goodwin Memorial Chapel.

"Out of the diversity of national interests," Dr. Rust said, "we must attain a unity of the human spirit, and religion should contribute to this end."

Dr. Rust is one of five ordained ministers on the faculty who rotate as Sunday morning speakers. Guest speakers who have a special message for students are scheduled for the near future.

Dr. Floyd L. Sampson, college chaplain, Edwin E. Krapf, instructor of religious education, and director of admissions, and Dr. Robert J. Taylor, professor of Religion, compose the Chapel Committee.

Dr. Clarence B. Loomis, associate professor of Sociology, is the fifth minister.

Dr. Taylor conducts regular Friday morning services in the chapel for the faculty and students. While attendance is not obligatory, it is an integral part of camping life, according to Dr. Rust.

Speech Among Races And Nations Is Still Primitive, Says Clarke

"We must revise our notion that human speech among races, nations and persons is any more than primitive," warns philosopher John Robert Clarke in his lecture, "How to Communicate While We Can," to be presented Tuesday, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m., at the House of Hospitality, Balboa Park.

Scoring the ancient habit of "describing before looking" as a cause of conflict, Clarke notes that "from Socrates to the present, the failure to communicate has produced 967 international wars and 1623 civil wars in the Graeco-Roman and Western World. Most of this bitter history concerned opponents who were actually in agreement, but whose word-symbols kept them apart. It is time to ask why we have always had crusades to destroy but not to understand other people."

In a view that the art of talking together begins at home, Clarke draws on his two-year graduate research into semantics at Harvard University in discussing techniques for communicating when we talk.

Tuesday's lecture will be the fifth in the current "Adventures in Living" series. All lectures are open to the public at a nominal charge, and are followed by coffee and discussion.

Seminar Planned For Potters Fri.

Allied Craftsmen of San Diego will sponsor a seminar for potters to be given by Richard Petterson at the Fine Arts Gallery studio in Balboa Park, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p.m.

Petterson is head of the ceramics department at Scripps College and assistant to Millard Sheets in the management of the Los Angeles County Fair art show. He is a noted potter, and a great experimenter and innovator of new ideas and methods.

At this seminar he will demonstrate new ways of wheel throwing and decorating at the same time. He will show moving pictures of new techniques and will distribute analyses of California clays and formulas for new glazes.

All potters are welcome. They are invited to bring their own work for criticism. Reservations may be made at the Fine Arts Gallery or with Marg Loring, 3726 Du Pont St. Admission $1.50.

Loma Portal PTA

Loma Portal PTA meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium with Miss Delight Smith, vice principal of Kearny Hgh School, as guest speaker.

Miss Smith spent last year studying and lecturing in England. Prior to that she was one of the first "exchange teachers" to be sent abroad. Her topic is "Facts and Fancies about English Ladies and English Schools."

Morrison Injured

Lester J. Morrison, of 2233 Froude St., was injured seriously late Saturday night when his car rolled over an embankment near Descanso, it was reported. He was taken to Grossmont Hospital.

THE PARTY LINE

By Evelyn Maconnell, AC 3-0695

Mrs. Arthur L. Langston Jr., who owns three handsome pearl and semi-precious stone-studded tiaras worked on lace cushions, loaned them to the three "first ladies'" at the Tiara Ball held last week at the San Diego Fine Arts Gallery.

The tiaras are copies of ones 125 years old worn by titled society women in Peru, and last week were worn by Mrs. Frank Marcy, president of the Ball; Mrs. S. Beach and Mrs. George C. Hatch, chairman of the preball reception.

Mrs. Langston was seen in a red satin ballerina formal with genuine topaz necklace and earrings to match with a studded jewel on a gold tiara. This was a copy of a queen's tiara of Portugal, and is owned by Mrs. Joseph Rosa of Ocean Beach.

FREE LECTURE SERIES OPENS AT L. J. MONDAY

A talk by Harrison S. Brown, professor at California Institute of Technology and an editor of "The Saturday Review," will open a free public lecture series at La Jolla High School auditorium at 8 p.m., Monday, Nov. 7th.

Brown's topic will be "Resource Development in India." He has recently returned from that country, in which he spent several months on a Guggenheim Fellowship. His talk will be illustrated with color slides.

The lecture is the first of a series of three sponsored jointly by the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography and the La Jolla San Diego County Theatre and Arts Foundation. The public is invited.

'Give Pedestrian A Break,' Urges Traffic Council

"Give the pedestrian a break." This advice was issued to San Diego County motorists by Ronald T. Strong, president of the Traffic Safety Council, who said the November traffic safety theme is a sportsmanlike attitude toward pedestrians.

"A pedestrian is no match for a car, so even when you have the right of way, give it up to avoid an accident," Strong said. "Our vehicle codes and ordinances require the driver to yield the right of way to a pedestrian at all times."

He especially reminded drivers to be on the lookout for children and older persons and cautioned drivers and pedestrians, alike, against the unsafe conduct of the latter.

The first recorded traffic fatality in the nation was a pedestrian and last year 7,900 pedestrians lost their lives in traffic. Forty-six San Diego County pedestrians were traffic victims in 1954.

Because November has a record of being a month of high fatalities, Strong also urged motorists to have their cars checked to insure brakes, horn, lights, turn signals, tires and windshield wipers are in good working condition.

AAUW WILL HONOR NEW MEMBERS FRI.

New members who have joined the San Diego branch, American Association of University Women, since last spring will be honored at a party sponsored by the New Member Party committee at the AAUW clubhouse Friday, Nov. 4, at 8 p.m.

Games will be played and refreshments served, said Mrs. James T. Jennings, committee chairman. Branch officers, committee and section chairmen will help entertain new members and acquaint them with AAUW activities.
